I'm a Full Stack Developer with experience in Next.js and React (MERN stack: MongoDB, Express.js, React.js, Node.js), as well as Python / Django / PostgreSQL. As a seasoned start-up founder, I'm skilled at combining technical and people expertise with business acumen to identify and solve problems. I understand how to deliver a functional and good-looking product on time. I thrive in dynamic environments, and am a supportive and thoughtful team-member. I'm looking to join a company where I can make a long-lasting impact.
